Meridian, ID – November 15, 2022 – The Village at Meridian is getting ready to welcome Santa and all his special guests at the Annual Tree Lighting and Santa Arrival presented by Bretz RV and Marine.

Be there Thursday, November 17, 2022, from 6pm to 7pm in Fountain Square, dressed warm and ready to greet Santa, meet Christmas Bear, Frosty, The Elves and more while the kids help light the tree at The Village at Meridian.

Bring the family and friends to enjoy free entertainment including a performance by Vocalocity, a stage show on the ice and help welcome Santa for the season. Visits with Santa start November 18th and can be booked through the online system.

Kids of all ages will enjoy helping Santa light the tree with magic wands, a special Fountain Show to kick off the festivities, fireworks and more. Come early to grab your seat and be sure to stop by Chip Cookies for a sweet treat or make your reservations at one of the delicious restaurants like Kona Grill, Yardhouse or Matador to enjoy the evening.

“We welcome everyone in the community to gather and enjoy this very special annual event as we welcome Santa and all his friends. This is a free event for everyone and we hope to see you in Fountain Square on Thursday,” Vice President of Marketing, Ramona Merrill shared.
